Baggage allowance policy update

Starting June 15, 2016 (for travel on or after July 15, 2016), Canadian North is reducing the baggage allowance for their lowest class fares to one checked item (maximum of 23 kilograms/50 pounds).

Scheduled medical travel will not be impacted by the reduced baggage allowance.

People travelling on medical travel will continue to be allowed to check in two items (maximum of 32 kilograms/70 pounds per item).

For more information on medical travel, visit gov.nu.ca/health/information/medical-travel.
