Nunavut Arts Liaison Officer

Department of Culture, Language, Elders & Youth

Iqaluit, Nunavut

1 Year Term

This position exists to promote and foster the development of the arts in Nunavut by providing analysis, advice, administrative support and guidance on arts programs and services. Through this position Nunavummiut will be provided with improved access to arts information and services, resulting in the development of educational, economic and social opportunities, and enhanced awareness of the importance of the arts sector in Nunavut society. This position is part of a partnership agreement with the Canada Council for the Arts, which includes a provision for the renewal of the position.

The successful candidate will play an important role in facilitating and in strengthening the arts economy and social fabric of Nunavut. The incumbent will also represent the Canada Council for the Arts in an initiative designed to increase support to all artists in Nunavut with a focus on Inuit artists, and develop and implement targeted activities to raise awareness on accessibility to Canada Council's and CLEY's programs and services.

The incumbent will have a specialized knowledge and direct experience in arts-related activities including grants and contributions, arts promotion and advocacy. This level of knowledge is typically acquired through a university degree or diploma-granting institution in arts or cultural administration or a related field. A minimum of 5 years of experience directly related to the principal responsibilities of this position is required and an understanding of the interrelationships, complexities and intricacies of the artistic milieu is essential. The language proficiency required to serve this community requires strong oral and written skills in Inuktitut and English. Knowledge of Inuit communities, culture and Inuit Qaujimajatuqangit is an asset.

Equivalencies consisting of a combination of education, knowledge, skills and abilities and experience will be considered.

This position is included in the Nunavut Employees Union and has a starting salary of $80,652.00 per annum, plus a Northern Allowance of $15,016.00 per annum.

REFERENCE #: 08-500253

Closing Date: March 2, 2012 at Midnight EST
