QEC Summer Student Program

Are you a Nunavut resident attending high school, college, or university and are returning to school in the fall? If so, then take advantage of this great opportunity by applying as a summer student at Qulliq Energy Corporation. Our Summer Student Program is designed to foster growth and development in students by exposing them to QEC's diverse working environments. In addition to gaining vital work experience, students play an important role in supporting our employees during the busy summer months.
