The Department of Health has a new website dedicated to healthy teeth and mouth: nunavutsmiles.ca.

The new website has sections for caregivers, educators and health care professionals, and includes new resources about:

- how to brush and floss your teeth
- infant oral care
- denture care
- sports protection
- a calendar with upcoming dental visits to your community

The website also features information on the Nunavut Oral Health Program, available for children 0-8 years of age.

For more information, or to check on your child's eligibility, please contact your community oral health coordinator.

To learn more about oral health in Nunavut, please visit nunavutsmiles.ca.
