October 16 is World Food Day! Around the globe, the day is celebrated by individuals and organizations committed to food security.

In recognition of this day, the Nunavut Food Security Coalition is sharing a new guidebook, Serving Country Food in Government-Funded Facilities and Community Programs.

Because country food is a healthy choice, GN-funded facilities and community programs are encouraged to serve more of it. To learn more about serving country food, World Food Day and the Nunavut Food Security Coalition, visit our website at: www.nunavutfoodsecurity.ca
