Nunavut Homeowner Fuel Rebate available April 1

Iqaluit, Nunavut (April 3, 2023) – A one-time fuel rebate for Nunavut homeowners will be available starting April 1, 2023, Finance Minister Lorne Kusugak announced today.

"The Nunavut Homeowner Fuel Rebate recognizes the increased costs that inflation and new federal carbon tax rates have had on Nunavut homeowners. This rebate gives homeowners a bit of relief on the high costs of heating their homes," said Minister Kusugak.

The Nunavut Homeowner Fuel Rebate will provide a non-taxable rebate of $1,000 to Nunavut residents who owned their home on April 1, 2023. This rebate is available during the 2023-24 fiscal year and is a one-time lump sum payment.

Information on how to apply for the Nunavut Homeowner Fuel Rebate is available on the Department of Finance's website at www.gov.nu.ca/finance. Applications open on April 1, 2023 and will be accepted until December 31, 2023.
