LIQUOR ACT

CONSOLIDATION OF
CHESTERFIELD INLET LIQUOR RESTRICTION REGULATIONS
R-027-2004

AS AMENDED BY

This consolidation is not an official statement of the law. It is an office consolidation prepared for convenience of reference only. The authoritative text of regulations can be ascertained from the Revised Regulations of the Northwest Territories, 1990 and the monthly publication of Part II of the Northwest Territories Gazette (for regulations made before April 1, 1999) and Part II of the Nunavut Gazette (for regulations made on or after April 1, 1999).
Liquor Act (Nunavut)

Chesterfield Inlet Liquor Restriction Regulations

Whereas the Minister has declared, under subsection 49(1) of the Liquor Act and every enabling power, all that portion of Nunavut that lies within a radius of 25 kilometres of the Chesterfield Inlet Hamlet Office to be a restricted area,

The Commissioner, on the recommendation of the Minister, under subsection 49(5) of the Liquor Act and every enabling power, makes the Chesterfield Inlet Liquor Restriction Regulations.

Interpretation

1. In these regulations,

   “applicant” means a person applying to the Committee for permission to
   (a) purchase or possess liquor in the restricted area;
   (b) bring liquor into the restricted area; or
   (c) make beer or wine in the restricted area;

   “Committee” means the Chesterfield Inlet Alcohol Education Committee;

   “member” means a member of the Committee;

   “restricted area” means all that portion of Nunavut that lies within a radius of 25 kilometres of the Chesterfield Inlet Hamlet Office.

Alcohol Education Committee

2(1) The Chesterfield Inlet Alcohol Education Committee is established.

(2) The Committee’s functions include the education and counselling of persons in the use of alcohol for the purpose of preventing alcohol abuse.

3. The Committee consists of seven persons.

4(1) The members of the Committee shall be elected in the same manner and on the same day as councilors of the Chesterfield Inlet Hamlet Council.

(2) The provisions of the Local Authorities Elections Act apply to the election of members with such modifications as the circumstances require.

(3) The members of the first Committee shall be elected at the next regularly scheduled election of the councilors of the Chesterfield Inlet Hamlet Council.
5 The term of office of the members of the Committee is the same as the term of office of the councilors of the Chesterfield Inlet Hamlet Council who are elected on the same day as the members.

6(1) In the event of a vacancy on the Committee, the candidate at the last election for the Committee who received the highest number of votes among the candidates who were not elected may fill the vacancy until the expiration of the term of the vacancy.

(2) Where the person referred to in subsection (1) refuses to fill the vacancy on the Committee, the Committee shall successively offer the office to the candidate who received the next highest number of votes among the candidates who were not elected until a candidate agrees to fill the vacancy.

(3) Where the vacancy cannot be filled by the procedure set out in subsections (1) and (2), the Committee shall designate a person to fill the vacancy.

Procedures

7 The Committee shall select a chairperson, vice-chairperson and secretary from among its members.

8 The chairperson shall call meetings of the Committee as necessary to transact the business of the Committee.

9 A quorum of the Committee is four members.

10(1) The decisions of the Committee are made by a majority vote of the members present.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), each member may vote in a decision of the Committee.

(3) The chairperson may vote only in the event of a tie.

11(1) A member shall declare any interest in a matter before the Committee, and shall not vote on any matter in which he or she or a relative has an interest.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), “relative” means

(a) the spouse of the member; or

(b) a grandparent, parent, brother or sister, child or grandchild of the member or of the member’s spouse.

12 The secretary shall keep minutes of all meetings and a record of decisions made by the Committee.

13 All records of the Committee are confidential.

14 Where these regulations require the Committee to give notice to any person, the notice must be served personally or sent to the person by registered mail.
15 Subject to these regulations, the Committee may establish rules to govern its proceedings.

Applications

16(1) A person may apply to the Committee for permission to
   (a) purchase or possess liquor in the restricted area;
   (b) import or bring liquor into the restricted area; or
   (c) make beer or wine in the restricted area.

(2) The application must be made on a form approved by the Committee.

17(1) The chairperson shall give written notice to each applicant informing the applicant of the time, date and place of the meeting where the application will be considered.

(2) An applicant has the right to
   (a) attend and be heard at the meeting at which his or her application is considered; and
   (b) be represented by a lawyer or another person.

18(1) The Committee may approve, vary or refuse any application in whole or in part.

(2) The Committee may refuse, partially approve or vary an application where the Committee finds that the applicant has, by the abuse or excessive use of liquor,
   (a) harmed or threatened to harm himself or herself, a member of his or her family or a member of the restricted area; or
   (b) disrupted the peace of his or her family or the community.

(3) The Committee may refuse or vary an application where the applicant has sold, given or transferred liquor to a person who was subject to an order of disqualification under subsection 22(2).

(4) Where a decision is made to approve or partially approve an application, the Committee shall state the quantity of liquor that the applicant may possess or purchase in or bring into the restricted area, or the quantity of beer or wine the applicant may make in the restricted area.

(5) Where a decision is made to partially approve or refuse an application, the Committee shall state the reasons for its decision.

(6) The Committee shall give the applicant written notice of its decision and, where a decision is made under subsection (5), reasons for its decision.

Appeals

19(1) A person aggrieved by a decision of the Committee may appeal to a justice of the peace within thirty days of receiving notice of the decision.

(2) The justice of the peace may, after holding a hearing, confirm, vary or overrule the decision of the Committee.
(3) The decision of the justice of the peace is final.

Offences and Penalties

20 No person shall, without the prior permission of the Committee,
   (a) purchase or possess liquor in the restricted area;
   (b) import or bring liquor into the restricted area; or
   (c) make beer or wine in the restricted area.

21 No person shall, in the restricted area, possess liquor that has been purchased or brought into the restricted area, or beer or wine that has been made in the restricted area, in contravention of these regulations.

22(1) Every person who contravenes section 20 or 21 is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction
       (a) in the case of a first offence, to a fine not exceeding $50, or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding thirty (30) days, or to both;
       (b) in the case of a second offence to a fine not exceeding $100, or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding thirty (30) days, or to both;
       (c) in the case of a subsequent offence to a fine not exceeding $150, or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding thirty (30) days, or to both.

(2) Where a person is convicted of an offence under subsection (1), the court may order that the convicted person be disqualified from applying to the Committee for approval to purchase or possess in or to import or bring liquor into the restricted area, or to make beer or wine in the restricted area for a maximum period of one year.

(3) A court which issues an order of disqualification under subsection (2) shall, without delay, give a written notice of the order to the Committee.
