Arctic Bay 2013

Arctic Bay, known to the Inuit as Ikpiarjuk, “the pocket”, is surrounded on three sides by high hills. Located on northern Baffin Island, it is a great place to experience the sights of narwhals, walruses, seals & other sea mammals.

During the summer months, tourists also arrive on cruise ships to experience the sights and sounds of traditional Arctic Bay. Marble carvings, ivory sculptures, clothes and other arts and crafts are viewed and purchased from talented local artists and seamstresses.

Getting There: Flights are only operated by First Air. Flights are operated from Iqaluit to Arctic Bay. Please check with the airline for schedule changes.
