The Government of Nunavut was selected as one of Canada's Best Diversity Employers, Top Employers for Young People and recent graduates in 2023. With one of the fastest growing and youngest populations in Canada, Nunavut is a dynamic, vibrant territory, committed to becoming an even better place for future generations. As a government, we are strengthening our unique model of governance - one that integrates Inuit societal values, promotes use of the Inuktitut language, achieves a representative public service, and collaborates with partners to achieve the promise of Nunavut. Successful applicants will enjoy a competitive salary, medical and dental benefits, a defined benefit pension plan, relocation privileges and opportunities for training and career advancement.

Reporting to the Manager Home and Community Care and in collaboration with the Supervisor of Health Programs (SHP) and the Community Health Nurses (CHN), the Supervisor Home and Community care is responsible for providing nursing care and support services to the general population throughout the life cycle to enable them to stay in their homes and to promote optimal level of functioning in activities of daily living.

The Supervisor Home and Community Care will assess the status of clients who have been admitted to the Home and Community Care Program. Develops, modifies, and implements client care plan based on the assessed needs of the individual and the prescribed medical regimes. The Supervisor Home and Community Care supervises, trains and manages Home and Community Care staff in assigned communities.

The knowledge, skills, and abilities required for this job are usually obtained through a Bachelor of Science in Nursing, plus five (5) years of nursing experience. A minimum of one (1) year supervisory experience and one (1) year of related experience in home and community care are required. Graduates from the Nunavut Arctic College Nursing Program, who passed the NCLEX exam, and are enrolled in the Nunavut's Graduate Nursing Residency Program will also be considered. Candidates must be eligible to register with CANN. Candidates must possess a valid driver's license.

This is a Highly Sensitive Position and a satisfactory Criminal Record Check, along with a clear Vulnerable Sector Check is required.

Please note that COVID-19 vaccination is a mandatory condition of employment. Submit proof of COVID-19 vaccination with your application.

If you are interested in applying for this job, please email your cover letter and resume to Nunavutnurses@gov.nu.ca. Please include the REFERENCE # in the subject line of your email.

- The Government of Nunavut is committed to creating a representative workforce; therefore, priority will be given to Nunavut Inuit who self-identify as being enrolled under the Nunavut Agreement in accordance with the Priority Hiring Policy.
- Government of Nunavut employees serving a probationary period must obtain and provide written authorization from the deputy head of their employing department. The authorization from the deputy head must accompany your application for your application to be considered.
- Possession of a criminal record may not disqualify candidates from being considered. An assessment of the criminal record will be measured against the scope and duties of the position. This is only a requirement for positions that require a satisfactory criminal record or vulnerable sector check.
- Applicants may submit their resume in any of the Official Languages of Nunavut.
- Only those candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.
- The onus is on candidates in receipt of foreign post-secondary education credentials to have their foreign credentials assessed through a recognized Canadian education institution. Failure to do so may result in the rejection of their application.
