The Government of Nunavut was selected as one of Canada's Best Diversity Employers, Top Employers for Young People and recent graduates in 2024. With one of the fastest growing and youngest populations in Canada, Nunavut is a dynamic, vibrant territory, committed to becoming an even better place for future generations. As a government, we are strengthening our unique model of governance - one that integrates Inuit societal values, promotes use of the Inuktut language, achieves a representative public service, and collaborates with partners to achieve the promise of Nunavut. Successful applicants will enjoy a competitive salary, medical and dental benefits, a defined benefit pension plan, relocation privileges and opportunities for training and career advancement.

Reporting to the Executive Director, the Quality Assurance Risk Management Coordinator (Coordinator) is accountable for the development and implementation of a comprehensive quality assurance and risk management program for Igaluit Health Services (IHS) including the Qikigtani General Hospital (QGH) and Iqaluit Public Health (IPH). This includes Continuous Quality Improvement, maintenance of acceptable standards of clinical and ethical practice, and the development of a program to prevent and minimize harm to staff and clients or loss or damage to Departmental facilities, equipment, or supplies.

The Coordinator is responsible for resolving complaints, conducting case reviews, investigating incidents and unusual occurrences, and ensuring that there is a safe workplace with zero tolerance for violence. The Coordinator monitors risk within the facility and makes senior management aware of the risk/exposure and makes recommendations respecting initiatives to protect the interests of the Government of Nunavut. The Coordinator is also responsible for conducting environmental scans of services and programs with IHS and providing reviews and recommendations on how to improve functionality and outcomes. The Coordinator holds a critical role on the IHS Senior Leadership Team.

The knowledge, skills, and abilities required for this job are usually obtained through a recognized undergraduate degree in nursing; along with three (3) years of practical experience related to Quality Assurance and Risk Management. Registration with RNANT/NU is also required. A master's degree in health administration along with Surveyor status by Accreditation Canada would be considered as assets. This is a Highly Sensitive Position and a satisfactory Criminal Record Check, along with a clear Vulnerable Sector Check is required.

Please note that COVID-19 vaccination is a mandatory condition of employment. Submit proof of COVID-19 vaccination with your application.

The Official Languages of Nunavut are Inuktut, English and French. Applicants may submit their resume in any of the official languages of Nunavut. Fluency in more than one of Nunavut's official languages would be considered an asset. Knowledge of Inuit communities, culture, land, Inuit
