MIRNGUIQSIRVIIT
NUNAVUT PARKS ᓄᓇᕗᑦ ᐊᕐᕌᒍᓐᓇᖅᓯᒪᓕᒃ PARCS NUNAVUT

"Learn to …" Schedule of Events
Iqalugaarjuup Nunanga Territorial Park Summer 2019

Nunavut Parks and Special Places "Learn to…" are back at Iqalugaarjuup Nunanga Territorial Park in Rankin Inlet! Different activities are planned every Saturday at 1 p.m until the end of August 2019.

Saturday June 22, 2019

Learn to Make Mikku
This session will teach participants how to prepare caribou meat for drying, to make mikku.

Saturday July 6, 2019

Learn about Traditional Rock Uses
This session will be held at the Thule site, to look at and learn about the different ways Inuit traditionally used rocks.

Saturday July 13, 2019

Learn to Make Pipsi
This session will teach the participants how to make pipsi (dried fish).

Saturday July 20, 2019

Learn to Throatsing
This session will teach participants how to throat sing and the meanings behind these songs.

Saturday August 3, 2019

Learn to Make an Aulasaut
This session will teach participants how to make an aulasaut (jigger for fishing)

Saturday August 10, 2019

Learn to Make Bannock and How to Prepare Traditional Tea
This session will teach participants how to make bannock and traditional tea.

Saturday August 17, 2019

Learn to Play Traditional Inuit Games
This session will teach participants how to play some traditional Inuit games.

Saturday August 24, 2019

Learn to Collect Qulliq Wick, and Light a Qulliq
This session will teach participants which particular type of plants to collect to use as wick for the Qulliq, and how to light the Qulliq.

Annette Boucher – Parks Technician
Nunavut Parks and Special Places
Department of Environment
Phone: 867-645-8007
Email: ABoucher@gov.nu.ca

Nunavut