PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The purpose of the Women's Initiatives Grant is to promote women's empowerment in Nunavut. The focus will be on providing funding for projects that promote women's leadership skills, employability, economic self-sufficiency, wellness, self-reliance and traditional knowledge.

ELIGIBLE APPLICANTS

Eligible applicants should include individuals, community non-profit organizations, and municipal corporations that direct current efforts to provide ongoing services for women and girls or develop new initiatives to target the specific needs of women and girls.

ELIGIBLE PROJECTS

Eligible projects could include, but are not limited to:

- 1) Workshops that build awareness and understanding of the issues experienced by women, and help women access support services.
E.g., parenting programs, managing stress and emotions, etc.
- 2) Initiatives that link women with opportunities for training, career development or building traditional skills, or employment opportunities.
E.g., work-ready programs, resume writing, mentorship programs, etc.
- 3) Workshops and land-based activities that build life skills, leadership, self-reliance, traditional knowledge, and wellness.
E.g., sewing and tool making programs, cooking programs, hunting skills, etc.

The Department of Family Services has funding available for small-scale community-based projects. Projects should not exceed $20,000.

Applicants may be contacted for additional information or clarification on proposals.

ELIGIBLE EXPENSES

- Materials for project-based initiatives (i.e., sewing, hunting, cooking etc.)
- Supplies/equipment for land-based programs (e.g., skidoo/ATV rental, tent rental, Coleman stove, etc.)
- Snacks/country food
- Honorariums/payments for elders
- Photocopying, papers, manuals, etc.
- Facilitation fees
- Rental costs associated with hosting Women's meetings

Please note: costs must be directly related to the proposed project and to be used within the time period specified.

INELIGIBLE EXPENSES

- Capital projects
- Utilities and maintenance costs
- Purchasing supplies to stock food banks or soup kitchens
- Activities of an international or national scope

ASSESSMENT AND CRITERIA

Applications will be reviewed by a review committee nominated by the Executive Director of Family Wellness. The applicant's ability to meet the assessment criteria will be considered based on the information submitted in their proposal.

The review committee may contact applicants for additional information or may make recommendations on alternative funding programs for which projects may be eligible.

* Note – The committee may decide to fund projects at a level below the amount requested
