Importing alcohol from outside Nunavut

Start Date: January 22, 2021

End Date: February 5, 2021

Nunavut-wide

60 sec

Did you know that if you live in a restricted or an unrestricted community, you can bring back up to three litres of spirits, nine litres of wine, or 26 litres of beer (72 x 355 millilitre containers) to Nunavut? A liquor import permit is needed to bring in more than this amount. If you live in a restricted community, you will also need approval from your local Alcohol Education Committee (AEC) before importing alcohol.

Import permits are available from your region’s liquor permit office:

Iqaluit NULC store Phone: 867-975-6869 Fax: 867-979-5836	Cambridge Bay – Department of Finance (Helen Maksagak Centre) Phone: 867-983-4048
Rankin Inlet – Siniktarvik Building Phone: 867-645-8576 Fax: 867-645-3327	Hamlet of Kugluktuk (Kugluktuk only) Phone: 867-982-6509 Email: water@kugluktuk.ca

Without an import permit, liquor stores in other provinces will not process your order. Please note that liquor import permits are non-refundable and are valid for only one order. They must be used within three weeks of purchase date.

You can also buy alcohol within Nunavut without an import permit through the Nunavut Liquor and Cannabis Commission (NULC), by phone at 867-645-8475 or toll free at 855-844-5488, by fax at 867-645-3327, or by email at orders@nulc.ca. Please note that the NULC has recently updated their order email.
