

- All non-essential businesses may open, including personal services such as hair and beauty salons.
- Taxis may have one fare per trip, with mandatory masks.
- Group counselling sessions are now open to 10 people.
- Parks and playgrounds may open, but buildings remain closed.
- Restaurants and licensed establishments remain restricted to take-out only, with a maximum of 10 people in line.
- Schools will be opening January 24.

Masks remain mandatory in all communities and non-essential travel continues to be discouraged.

Premier P.J. Akeeagok and Dr. Patterson are holding a live COVID-19 update at 11 a.m. ET today. Tune in on the Legislative Assembly TV channel, at <http://video.isilive.ca/nunavut/> or on radio in Iqaluit at 92.5FM. The next COVID-19 update will be on Tuesday January 18 at 11 a.m.

Anyone who develops COVID-19 symptoms – runny nose, cough, sore throat, fever or difficulty breathing – should call the COVID hotline at 1-888-975-8601 between 10 a.m. and 6 p.m. EDT. There are longer wait times to get through to the hotline, so please remain patient. Please do not call or go to the health centre.
