1.0 POLICY STATEMENT

The Department of Health (Health) will provide medical travel benefits to eligible clients who must travel in order to access necessary health services that are not available in their home community.

2.0 PRINCIPLES

2.1 The Policy and its application are guided by the following principles:

- (a) Inuit Societal Values, which includes the guiding principles of Pijitsirniq – serving and providing for family and/or community and Inuuqatigiitsiarniq – respecting others, relationships and caring for people, will be recognized and respected;
- (b) All activities of the Nunavut health-care system support an approach that places people first;
- (c) The cost of travel should not be a barrier to individuals accessing necessary health services that are not available in their home community;
- (d) The Medical Travel Program should be designed to be fair, understandable, easy to access, and consistently applied across the territory;
- (e) The Medical Travel Program should operate in a way that is accountable, sustainable and responsive; and
- (f) The Nunavut health-care system supports the accessibility principle of the Canada Health Act.

6.0 PROVISIONS

MEDICAL TRAVEL CLIENTS

Medical Travel Eligibility

- 6.1 Eligibility for medical travel benefits is restricted to residents of Nunavut who must travel to access necessary health services that are not available in their home community and meet the following criteria:
 - (a) the client must hold, or be eligible for, valid registration with the Nunavut Health Care Plan; and
 - (b) the reason for travel is a valid referral from a Nunavut practitioner and the travel cannot be deferred until the client is traveling for other reasons.
- 6.2 In emergency circumstances, the cost of medical travel transportation for non-residents will be paid by the Government of Nunavut; however, the non-resident will be billed for the full cost of the transportation provided.

Client Benefits

- 6.3 Medical Travel benefits will only be authorized for medical travel originating within Nunavut.
- 6.4 Health is a payer of last resort. Medical travel benefits (both scheduled and medevac) are provided only to clients who do not have access to medical travel benefits through an employer, an insuring body, or some other program, including as a dependent. Clients will be required to use their third-party insurance or employment benefits first.
- 6.5 Subject to any co-payment set by the Minister, medical travel benefits include the following:

- (a) medical travel transportation to and from the nearest approved centre through:
 - i. scheduled aircraft at economy airfare;
 - ii. charter aircraft when it is a reasonable and cost-effective alternative to scheduled travel;
 - iii. ground transportation when required to transfer a client from one approved centre to another;
 - iv. medevac when needed to access emergency care or when the client is unable to travel on a commercial flight; and
 - v. the cost of travel to get a client who becomes seriously ill or badly injured on the land to the nearest approved centre (subject to provisions in the Memorandum of Understanding between Health and the Department of Community and Government Services).
- (b) a medical escort as set-out in section 6.28; and
- (c) a client escort as set out in section 6.6.

6.6 A client is eligible for a client escort if a Nunavut practitioner, in consultation with the client or guardian, recommends a client escort and when any of the following criteria are met:

- (a) there is a need for legal consent for the client by a parent or guardian;
- (b) the client has a mental or physical condition which results in the client being unable to travel without additional assistance;
- (c) the client escort will participate in the client's treatment program and receive instructions on specific and essential home medical/nursing procedures that cannot be given to the client only;
- (d) the client is unilingual speaking in Inuktut and requires travel to an approved centre where interpretation services are not available;
- (e) the client is unilingual speaking in an Inuit language and is 65 years of age or older; or,
- (f) the client requires travel for confinement to give birth outside of their home community.

6.7 When a client chooses to travel to a centre other than the nearest approved centre, medical travel benefits will only be provided to the destination with the lowest cost to Health among the nearest approved centre and the alternative centre chosen by the client.

6.8 Approved travel is deemed to begin upon boarding the first flight on the journey immediately prior to the client's appointment.

6.9 Once the client is medically cleared to return home, return travel will be scheduled for the first available flight after the final appointment, to the community from which the medical travel was initiated, through the most economical transportation mode available.

Client Responsibilities

6.10 Clients must sign the Client Travel Agreement in Appendix A before travel will be arranged.

6.11 While on medical travel for health services, clients are responsible for the following:

- (a) providing reasonable advance notice to the health centre when the client can no longer attend a previously confirmed appointment except when prevented for medical reasons or because of circumstances outside the client's control;
- (b) attending all appointments;
- (c) following all prescribed instructions given by health practitioners;
- (d) checking in for all flights except when prevented for medical reasons or because of circumstances outside the client's control;
- (e) abiding by the rules of the boarding home or hotel facility;
- (f) refraining from abusing and being intoxicated by alcohol, cannabis, illegal drugs; there is zero tolerance for intoxication and illegal drug use;
- (g) refraining from engaging in abusive verbal and/or physical behaviour, violent behaviour and illegal behaviour, including behaviour that results in harm to individuals and/or property damage; and
- (h) practice social distancing, proper hand hygiene and follow any public health official guidelines concerning the use of Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) when required.

6.12 Where it is determined that a client is not fulfilling their responsibilities as per the Client Travel Agreement (Appendix A) and as described in section 6.11, a Director or another official designated by the Deputy Minister, will consider the following courses of action:

- (a) A client can be deemed ineligible for current and future escort duties;
- (b) A client can be billed for the costs associated with medical travel including missed appointments;
- (c) A client can be asked to make and pay for their own arrangement, including accommodations, meals and ground transportation; and/or
- (d) A client can be responsible for any damages resulting from abusive, violent or illegal behavior.

Exclusions and Exceptions

6.13 Medical travel arrangements and, in some cases, payments for accommodations, meals, ground transportation, client escorts and travel can also be determined in part or in whole by the terms and conditions of a client's insurance coverage under any of the following insurance programs:

- (a) Non-Insured Health Benefits Program;
- (b) Extended Health Benefits Program;
- (c) Workers' Safety and Compensation Commission;
- (d) Public Service Health Care Plan;

- (e) Government of Nunavut Employees Dental and Health Benefits Plan; and
- (f) Third-party insurance plans.

CLIENT ESCORTS

Client Escort Eligibility

6.14 An individual is eligible to serve as a client escort only where they meet all of the following criteria:

- (a) the individual is an adult or is a mature minor parent or guardian of the client;
- (b) if the client is an infant or child, the client escort is able to make medical decisions for the client, if necessary;
- (c) the individual agrees to and signs the Client and Escort Travel Agreement (Appendix B) and agrees to fulfill the responsibilities described in section 6.23;
- (d) the individual is able to stay with the client for up to four weeks before returning to their home community;
- (e) the individual agrees to participate in the client's treatment program and receive instructions on specific and essential home medical/nursing procedures that cannot be given to the client only;
- (f) the individual has fulfilled the responsibilities set-out in sections 6.11 and 6.23 and those described in the Client Travel Agreement (Appendix A) and the Client and Escort Travel Agreement (Appendix B) during any past medical travel; and
- (g) if the client is unilingual speaking in Inuktitut, the individual may be required to speak both Inuktitut and English for the provision of services not related practitioner-patient communication.

Client Escort Benefits

6.15 Medical travel benefits provided to client escorts include transportation to and from the nearest approved centre through:

- (a) scheduled aircraft at economy airfare;
- (b) charter aircraft when it is a reasonable and cost-effective alternative to scheduled travel; and
- (c) ground transportation when required to transfer a client from one approved centre to another.

Client Escort Approval Process

6.16 A Nunavut practitioner must request a client escort in writing, and ensure the following information is included in the request:

- (a) reason or explanation for why the client escort is needed; and
- (b) an indication of support, or not, from the Nunavut practitioner, including an explanation as to why the request is being supported or not.

- 6.17 Nunavut practitioners must submit client escort requests to the Director, or another official designated by the Deputy Minister, for approval.
- 6.18 The Director, or another official designated by the Deputy Minister; will notify the health centre of any decision concerning the client escort request. Either the Nunavut practitioner or travel clerk will notify the client or guardian of any decision concerning the client escort request.
- 6.19 A client escort may be approved for a portion of, or the entire duration of a client's medical travel.
- 6.20 Despite provisions 6.16-6.19, a Nunavut practitioner can approve a request for a client escort where the request concerns a parent or guardian serving as a client escort for an infant or child and the client escort meets the qualification criteria for client escorts in section 6.14.
- 6.21 If the request is for a second client escort, the written request will be reviewed by the Director or another official designated by the Deputy Minister and forwarded to the Assistant Deputy Minister – Operations for approval. A second client escort may be provided in rare situations, when it is deemed necessary by a Nunavut practitioner.

Client Escort Responsibilities

- 6.22 Client escorts must sign the Escort Travel Agreement in Appendix B before travel will be arranged.
- 6.23 While accompanying a client on medical travel for health services, client escorts are responsible for the following:
- (a) checking in for all flights except when prevented for medical reasons or because of circumstances outside the client escort's control;
 - (b) abiding by the rules of the boarding home or hotel facility;
 - (c) refraining from abusing and being intoxicated by alcohol, cannabis, illegal drugs; there is zero tolerance for intoxication and illegal drug use;
 - (d) refraining from engaging in abusive verbal and/or physical behaviour, violent behaviour or illegal behaviour, including behaviour that results in harm to individuals and/or property damage;
 - (e) treating the client, fellow travelers, health-care workers, boarding home and hotel staff and airline staff with respect;
 - (f) staying with the client at all reasonable times, including sharing accommodations and attending all appointments;
 - (g) if the client is in a hospital, being available to assist the client with their needs;
 - (h) where an escort has been approved on the basis of providing interpretation support for the provision of services not related to practitioner-client communication, The client escort may be asked to demonstrate basic language ability in both the client's language and that of English;

- (i) staying with the client for up to four weeks consecutively;
- (j) being aware of the client's condition and medications; and
- (k) practice social distancing, proper hand hygiene and follow any public health official guidelines concerning the use of Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) when required.

6.24 Where it is determined that a client escort is not fulfilling their responsibilities as per the Client Escort Travel Agreement (Appendix B) and as described in section 6.23, a Director or another official designated by the Deputy Minister will consider the following courses of action:

- (a) A client escort can be deemed ineligible for current and future escort duties;
- (b) A client escort can be billed for the costs associated with medical travel including missed appointments;
- (c) A client escort can be asked to make and pay for their own arrangement, including accommodations, meals and ground transportation; and/or
- (d) A client escort can be responsible for any damages resulting from abusive, violent or illegal behavior.

Escort Switching

6.25 After four weeks of performing continuous client escort duties, a client escort may submit a request to the Director or another official designated by the Deputy Minister, to travel home, and a new client escort may be authorized.

6.26 A client escort may submit an appeal to the appointed medical travel appeals reviewers to request travel back home before four weeks of continuous client escort duties have passed.

6.27 If a client escort is unable to fulfill their duties before the client's medical travel is completed, a substitute client escort may be identified with the client and authorized for medical travel.

MEDICAL ESCORTS

Medical Escort Eligibility Criteria

6.28 A medical escort will be provided based on the clinical determination of a Nunavut practitioner.

Medical Escort Benefits

6.29 Medical travel benefits provided to medical escorts include the following:

- (a) medical travel transportation to and from the nearest approved centre through:
 - i. scheduled aircraft at economy airfare;
 - ii. charter aircraft when it is a reasonable and cost-effective alternative to scheduled travel;

- iii. ground transportation when required to transfer a client from one approved centre to another;
 - iv. medevac when needed to access emergency or specialized care; and
 - v. the cost of travel to get a client who becomes seriously ill or badly injured on the land to the nearest approved centre (subject to provisions in the Memorandum of Understanding between Health and the Department of Community and Government Services).
- (b) accommodation and meals at Government of Nunavut rates at approved commercial accommodation in accordance with the Government of Nunavut's Financial Administration Manual; and
 - (c) transportation as required between residence, approved centres, accommodation and airports.

ELECTIVE INFANT TRAVEL

Elective Infant Travel Eligibility

6.30 When it does not pose a risk to the infant's health, and subject to sections 6.31 to 6.33, an infant may accompany a parent or guardian when on medical travel, including when the client is travelling on confinement and is the parent or guardian of the infant.

- (a) A parent or guardian who is travelling as a client escort for a child, may have their infant accompany them while on medical travel.
- (b) Child care, while the client and client escort are attending the appointment is the responsibility of the parent or guardian

Approval Process for Elective Infant Travel

6.31 Infant travel requests must be submitted by a Nunavut practitioner to the Director, or another official designated by the Deputy Minister, for approval.

- (a) Requests for infant travel will not be approved where it is reasonable to expect that the infant will reach the age of two during the medical trip

6.32 An infant travel request must be submitted in writing and include the following information:

- (a) confirmation that childcare has been arranged for the infant during the clients appointments if necessary; and
- (b) confirmation from the Nunavut practitioner that the medical treatment for the client will not pose a health risk to the infant.

6.33 The Director, or another official designated by the Deputy Minister, will notify the client or guardian of any decision concerning the infant travel request.

RETURN OF DECEASED

6.34 If a client, client escort or medical escort dies while on approved travel, the following benefits will be provided:

- (a) preparation of the body to meet minimum airline regulations; and
- (b) transportation of the body to the Nunavut community of residence in the most economical way and in the most economical casket that meets airline standards.
 - i. At the request of the family and with prior approval from a Director, the body can be returned to a community other than where the deceased last resided as long as there is no extra cost to Health.

6.35 The family or estate of the deceased may choose to pay for preparation and transportation expenses for the body beyond the benefits provided in Sections 6.34 (a) and (b) above.

APPEALS

6.36 A client or guardian, and a client escort have the right to appeal a decision regarding medical travel and must make the appeal in writing by completing the approved appeal request form as found in Appendix C.

- (a) The appeal request form contains the contact information where appeal requests must be sent in order to be considered.

6.37 In completing the required appeal request form, the client, or guardian, or client escort must include the following information:

- (a) the reason or condition for which the medical travel benefit was requested;
- (b) the reason a client escort was requested, if applicable;
- (c) the name(s) of the Nunavut practitioner(s) or departmental staff who were involved in making the decision regarding medical travel;
- (d) the client's Nunavut health-care card number; and
- (e) the reason (i.e., the grounds on which) an appeal is being submitted.

6.38 A medical travel appeals reviewer will review the appeal with 5 business days to ensure it contains sufficient information to consider the appeal; then make a decision and provide the client or guardian with the decision in writing within 10 business days if the decision is required for pending medical travel; or within 30 days if the medical travel has already occurred.

- (a) When providing the client or guardian with a written decision, the medical travel appeals reviewer will specify the reasons in support of their decision.

6.39 A client or guardian, and client escort have the right to appeal a decision of a medical travel appeals reviewer regarding medical travel and must make the appeal in writing to the Deputy Minister. The decision of the Deputy Minister is final, there is no further level of appeal.

6.40 Second client escort decisions are not subject to appeal.

7.0 ACCOUNTABILITY

7.1 Health will submit an annual report on the administration of this Policy to the Minister.

8.0 FINANCIAL RESOURCES

8.1 Financial resources required under this Policy are conditional on approval by the Legislative Assembly and on the availability of funds in the appropriate budget.

9.0 PEROGATIVE OF CABINET

9.1 Nothing in this policy shall in any way be construed to limit the prerogative of the Executive Council to make decisions or take actions respecting non-insured benefits outside the provisions of this Policy.

10.0 SUNSET CLAUSE

10.1 This Policy shall sunset on March 31, 2025.
